

My name is Charlene Gottlieb. I am an internist. I joined the Spinal Cord Injury/Dysfunction Service at the Jefferson Barracks Division in 2009.

I received a BA degree in Philosophy and Mathematics from Harvard University in 1966 and an MD degree from Washington University in 1972, where following several years of research, I completed an internal medicine residency in 1985. I then joined the faculty of Washington University. I am board certified in Internal Medicine.

I can be reached in my office (2S38) or at 314-652-4100 or 800-228-5459, ext. 6-4830.
